BIOGRAPHY

As the Founder and CEO of ROOTED Consulting Group, Marlon works with political leaders, candidates, and organizations to drive positive change grounded in the values of fairness, inclusion, and accountability. His goal is to help build stronger, more equitable communities through strategic political consulting.

Before founding ROOTED, Marlon gained extensive experience in politics and community engagement across Northern Virginia. He served for six years on the staff of Congressman Gerry Connolly, including three years as his District Director. In addition, Marlon has been actively involved in local civic organizations, including serving on the Executive Committee of the Fairfax NAACP, as 1st Vice Chair of the Fairfax County Democratic Committee, is a member of the Fairfax County Democratic Black Caucus, and is President of the South County Football Alumni Association. He is also a proud member of the Pi Lambda Lambda Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Marlon is a recipient of the Northern Virginia 40 Under 40 and George Mason University Black Alumni Chapter 40 Under 40 awards, which honor emerging leaders who make a significant impact in both their professional and personal spheres within the Northern Virginia region. Marlon holds a Bachelor's degree from Christopher Newport University (2017) and a Master's in Public Policy from George Mason University (2019).
